Grapes Galore
Prego, Westin Bali
+62 361 771906
dining.bali@westin.com

Westin Bali's Prego restaurant will be celebrating Italy's Vendemmia Festival on 24th September 2017 with a special Sunday Brunch, offering great food and entertainment for the entire family. The annual Vendemmia Festival is a time-honoured Italian tradition to mark the end of the grape-harvesting season. This exclusive Sunday Brunch promises to be a fun day with an extensive buffet featuring an antipasti bar, live carving station and much more. In keeping with the spirit of the Vendemmia Festival, there will also be a number of sweet and savory specialties inspired by grapes. Notable highlights will include traditional grape stomping by Sababay Winery and an interactive bird show by Bali Bird Park with lots of photo opportunities. In addition, Westin Family Kids Club will be hosting supervised games and activities for little ones in a tropical garden setting. Along with Prego's upbeat dance routine, playful games and a guest appearance by Pippo the squirrel, there will be lucky draws on the day with some fabulous prizes to be won. The Italian Vendemmia Brunch is priced at just IDR 360k++ per person including a welcome glass of prosecco, soft drinks and signature iced teas.

Prego's usual Sunday Brunch is available every other Sunday as normal.
