

LUXURY

Alila Seminyak's newest seafood restaurant, Seasalt, is now open.

She sells 'seasalt' on the seashore

By Travel Weekly Asia / May 31, 2017

A+ A-

Outdoor group setup at Seasalt

Alila Seminyak has launched a new seascape dining experience with a dash of Japanese influence.

Seasalt, helmed by chef Vivian Vitalis from Penampang in Sabah, East Malaysia, features a seafood-skewed menu featuring highlights such as White Snapper, Seasalt's signature sea salt baked fish and the beautiful Blue Swimmer Crab.

Guests can choose from the Chef's Seafood set specially designed for two to share, and Seasalt Specials that are prepared with shio koji, a special fermented rice mixed with sea salt, a typical Japanese tradition that tenderises meats and fish and gives a natural umami flavour.

Designed by URBNarc, Seasalt is a stylish residence awash in ocean hues and cozy decor, creatively curated by EDG. The vibrancy of an open kitchen, the changing patterns of light and shadow on the outdoor decks, and the feel of the ocean breeze serve to create a sense of openness and connection to the sea for a relaxed coastal dining experience.

Guests can choose from the Chef's Seafood set specially designed for two to share, and Seasalt Specials that are prepared with shio koji, a special fermented rice mixed with sea salt, a typical Japanese tradition that tenderises meats and fish and gives a natural umami flavour.

Related Content

- Mastercard refreshes Affluent platform; banks on APAC affluent growth
Around the world on Crystal's magic carpet ride
Travel luxury, conserve the environment
Insight releases luxury itineraries
Remote Lands, Amanresorts unveil exclusive private jet journey

CyberSource the power of payment Important Methods to Detect Loyalty Fraud LEARN HOW TODAY

Travel Weekly Newsletters Subscribe today SIGN UP Click Here for our Terms and Privacy Policy

More From Luxury

Related

Mastercard refreshes Affluent platform; banks on APAC affluent growth

Around the world on Crystal's magic carpet ride

Travel luxury, conserve the environment

UNLOCK AN EXTRA 10% OFF when you stay in Singapore and Malaysia MERITUS rewards

Comments

0 Comments

Sort by Oldest

Add a comment...

Facebook Comments Plugin

Facebook post: Travel Weekly Asia June 2 at 7:00pm Revealed: Where Brits are going on holiday this year